reviews for our vintage wine selections

- château du trignon gigondas 2011 rhone valley, france 75
grenache, syrah, mourvedre and cinsault varietals. notes of toast, mocha and cloves in delicate oak with dark plum, blackberry, cherry and charcoal accents.
 91/100 Wine Spectator
- frédéric magnien côte du nuits-villages pinot noir 2013 burgundy, france 86
the true expression of old world burgundy pinot noir. velvety, suave, fresh, perfectly balanced, this wine reveals aromas of fruit with a high natural acidity.
- joseph phelps cabernet sauvignon 'innisfree' 2013 napa valley, california 88
this cabernet sauvignon boasts aromatic notes of bing cherry, cassis, raspberries, red currants and cocoa powder with hints of baking spices and tobacco, followed by an approachable, fresh, medium-bodied palate and great texture.
- gigi rosso barolo 'arione' 2012 piedmont, italy 96
nebbiolo grapes - intense garnet-red with lively orange highlights. a rich bouquet of licorice, dried flowers, ripe black cherries, earth and spice, with a balsamic note of mint-leaf. full-bodied, warm and intense on the palate.
 95/100 James Laube
- domaine de naly's châteauneuf du pape 2012 rhone valley, france 98 features an old-school personality, with singed chestnut and bay notes complemented by leather and pepper accents, surrounding a core of lightly steeped plum, red currant and cherry fruit. Tobacco and warm stone details line the finish, which lingers with a juicy edge.
 91-100 Wine Spectator
- castiglione del bosco brunello di montalcino 2011 tuscany, italy 120
despite the warm conditions of the 2011 growing season, this wine shows far more elegance, nuance and grace than I expected. This massive property is comprised of various vineyard sites for more blending possibilities. The bouquet is redolent of wild berry, cola and grilled herb. The tannins are silky but long in terms of persistence.
 92/100 Robert Parker
- robert craig 2014 napa valley, california 130
deep, powerful and expressive. Bold red fruit, iron, smoke, licorice and spices flesh out in the glass. Drink this intense, fruit-driven Cabernet Sauvignon over the next few years.
- speri amarone della valpolicella classico 2012 veneto, italy 130
a mouthwatering red, well-meshed and expressive, offering fine-grained tannins layered with crushed cherry and raspberry, spice box and orange peel flavors, with rich notes of loamy earth and smoke. Long and lasting on the zesty finish.
 92/100 Wine Spectator
- joseph phelps 2013 napa valley, california 170
this wine saw about 45% new oak (55% French, 45% American) and is opaque purple in color, with a classic Cabernet expression of tobacco leaf, blackcurrants, licorice and Christmas fruitcake. It is full-bodied, dense, opulent and concentrated.
 91/100 Robert Parker
